

So near, yet so far

Situated between the saltwater wilderness of the Everglades National Park, North America's only coral barrier reef and the deep blue waters of the Florida Straits is a village of islands known as Islamorada.

From sunrise on the Atlantic to sunset on the Gulf of Mexico, the Islander Resort, a Guy Harvey Outpost provides the perfect Florida Keys vacation in this world famous sport fishing destination. You'll find us nestled among the palms on more than 25 oceanfront acres at Mile Marker 82.1 and tucked into a Gulf front cove at Mile Marker 81 – only 79 miles from Miami International and 107 miles from Ft. Lauderdale International airports, about halfway between Key West and Miami.

We offer a variety of accommodations sure to please the most discerning guests. Our casually elegant 114-room resort offers oceanfront suites and lanai villas with vintage Florida 1950s flair and renovated cottage-style décor, as well as a beautiful new ballroom and conference center. All villas feature full kitchens, screened porches, complimentary WIFI, 25" TV, hair dryers, in-room safes and more.

Our 25 luxury townhomes and boat slips on the bayside offer the ultimate in vacation rental style accommodations: two bedrooms, full gourmet kitchens with stainless steel appliances, granite counter tops and living areas with 37" flat screen TVs, comfortable seating areas and private balconies with views of the Gulf. Take a dip in the swimming pool while admiring spectacular views of the beautiful Florida Bay. Ideal for traveling families or extended stays, it is the perfect location to watch the sun sink into the ocean.

Other amenities you will appreciate include Guy's Beachside Bar & Grill, an exercise room, the Guy Harvey Outfitter, ample parking, washer and dryers, ocean front swimming pools and hot tub, picnic tables and outdoor grills. On the Atlantic side, you'll also find volleyball, shuffleboard and basketball.

Islander Watersports concession is ready to help with your fun in the sun. You can rent bicycles to explore the island or watercrafts to explore the sea – sailboats, kayaks, water trikes, rafts, open fisherman power boats and snorkel gear.

There's lots to do in Islamorada. Fish. Dive. Visit the History of Diving Museum. Explore the lush, tropical nature trails at Long Key or Indian Key State parks. Swim with dolphins, sea lions and sting rays at Theater of the Sea Marine Mammal Park, located just two miles away. The Dolphin Research Center, home to bottlenose dolphin and sea lions, is on Grassy Key, about 23 miles away.

Islamorada also offers a wide array of fine and casual dining options, a yoga and massage center, a selection of upscale spas, eclectic shops and art galleries including the Rain Barrel, an artisans' collective. Don't miss the Morada Way Art Walk, held the third Thursday of each month.

Here is where you'll find the perfect resort accommodations for spending a long weekend or a long winter. An amazing 22-acre Atlantic Oceanfront resort or a luxury townhome on the Gulf with its own marina basin? An oceanfront lounge chair or a gulf-side dock? The choice is yours at Islander Resort, a Guy Harvey Outpost.
