

CHEF HOWELL'S SPECIAL SELECTION WINES

Michael Howell, our Executive Chef, is a renowned expert in the field of Italian wines, having been deeply involved in the global Slow Food Movement and hosting gourmet food and wine tours of Italy for the past decade.

The Green Turtle Club has worked with Chef Howell and UK-based Master of Wine Michael Palij to bring you these handpicked artisanal wines imported directly by us! These extraordinary wines are not available anywhere else in The Bahamas. We have recently increased our selection of handpicked wines imported directly to us to include unique, artisanal handcrafted wines of distinction from France and Spain as well.

350	Saladini Pilastris, Falerio, Le March, Italy 2011 Delightful and refreshing, this 100% organic white wine is a blend of Chardonnay, Fiano, Malvasia, Pecorino, Passerina and Trebbiano. It shows delicate floral, apple and hazelnut aromas. It's very soft with notes of apple and pear and a distinct almond nuttiness that carries throughout to the finish	$25
351	Terradora, Greco di Tufo, Campania, Italy 2011 Pale-medium gold reflections with a rich & powerfully aromatic nose of apricot, apple, peach & citrus fruits. It is ideal with hors d'oeuvres, shellfish, grilled fish dishes, buffalo mozzarella, chicken and cold meat. 90 points - Wine Spectator	$38
352	Vigneti Massa, Derthona Timorasso, Piedmont, Italy 2010 Timorasso, an ancient Italian grape, has been resurrected by iconic vintner Walter Massa to great acclaim. White flowers, honey, ginger, minerality. Long, powerful & sophisticated with a gently floral finish	$46
353	Inama, Soave Classico DOC, Campo Dei Tovi, Veneto, Italy 2010 This organically grown wine is generous, revealing apricots, honey, flowers and almonds. Generous acidity and a rich texture enforce the elegant finish this wine has. This is what Soave is supposed to be	$36
355	Domaine Faiveley, Puligny-Montrachet, Les Folatières 1er Cru, France, 2009 Selection by Chef Michael Howell. A fine and subtle structured nose, lovely floral notes. Complex and with excellent weight in the mouth, the oak is very well integrated. 92-94 points, Steven Tanzer	$179
